CHAD HOOPES BIOGRAPHY (2025)

Acclaimed by critics worldwide for his exceptional talent and magnificent tone, American violinist Chad Hoopes has remained an impressive, consistent, and versatile performer with many of the world's leading orchestras since winning First Prize at the Young Artists Division of the Yehudi Menuhin International Violin Competition.

Hoopes is a 2017 recipient of Lincoln Center's Avery Fischer Career Grant. Former winners include Kirill Gerstein, Yuja Wang, Leila Josefowicz, Joshua Bell and Hilary Hahn.

Highlights of past and present seasons include performances with The Philadelphia Orchestra, Orchestre de Paris, Konzerthausorchester Berlin, Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, Orchestre National du Capitole de Toulouse for the premiere of Qigang Chen's concerto "La joie de la souffrance." He has performed with leading orchestras including San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Houston and National Symphony, as well as Minnesota Orchestra, Colorado Music Festival Orchestra, the Dayton Philharmonic, and the National Arts Centre Orchestra. Hoopes frequently performs with the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center. Additionally, he has performed recitals at the Ravinia Festival, Tonhalle Zürich, the Louvre, and at Lincoln Center's Great Performers series in New York City.

His debut recording with the MDR Leipzig Radio Symphony Orchestra under Kristjan Järvi featured the Mendelssohn and Adams concertos was released in 2014 on the French label Naïve. The recording was enthusiastically received by both press and public. His recording of Bernstein's Violin Sonata with pianist Wayne Marshall will be released this autumn.

Hoopes is a frequent guest artist at the Menuhin Festival in Gstaad, Switzerland, the Rheingau Festival, and at Festspiele Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, where he was named the winner of the prestigious Audience Award. He served as Munich Symphony Orchestra's first Artist in Residence, a position created specifically for him after his highly acclaimed debut with the orchestra.

Born in Florida, Hoopes began his violin studies at the age of three in Minneapolis, and continued his training at the Cleveland Institute of Music under David Cerone and Joel Smirnoff. He additionally studied at the Kronberg Academy with Professor Ana Chumachenco, who remains his mentor. Hoopes serves as Professor of Practice in violin at the Meadows School of the Arts at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Hoopes plays the 1991 ex-Isaac Stern Zygmuntowicz and a 1766 G.B. Guadagnini.

About the Program

Saint-Saëns's symphony is known as the organ symphony and for good reason: the sweet and familiar melodies hung between moments of blazing climactic glory will have audiences at the edge of their seats. Each movement is better than the last! Leading up to this epic work is an organ concerto by Handel, which has inspired composers for centuries. Also on the program is the U.S. premiere of a new work by Derrick Skye, "Nova Plexus," co-commissioned by DPAA, the Berkeley Symphony, and BBC Radio 3.

There will be a half-hour "Take Note" pre-concert talk with Grant Wareham, Derrick Skye, and Neal Gittleman in the Schuster Center Wintergarden at 6:30pm each night.

Program

George Frederic Handel Organ Concerto in F Major, HMV 295 ("The Cuckoo and the Nightingale")

Derrick Skye Nova Plexus (U.S. Premiere)

Camille Saint-Saëns Symphony No. 3

About the Program

Celebrate Memorial Day on Father's Day at Carillon Park with a sensational concert by the Philharmonic! The Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra will perform at Carillon Historical Park on Father's Day instead of the usual Memorial Day Weekend performance (rescheduled due to Memorial Day Weekend conflicts with the NATO Parliamentary Assembly). Bring your chair or blanket—but leave the cooler at home (there'll be food options at the park)—and enjoy music, fun activities food, and more! The concert will feature traditional Memorial Day Weekend fare (patriotic favorites, the 1812 Overture, a memorial piece, the Armed Forces Salute, "Hang On Sloopy") plus some Father's-Day-themed pieces (bet you didn't know those existed!)
